General Terms and Conditions

Vera bjj kids takes precautionary measures to ensure a safe environment for children during Jiu-Jitsu training and to prevent accidents and injuries. However, parents or legal guardians are responsible for their child's insurance coverage. Training participation is at the Parents own risk, and Vera bjj kids disclaims any liability for accidents occurring in the training center. The use of facilities is also at the parents own risk, and any liability for consequences resulting from improper use is disclaimed.

The participants' parents or legal guardians confirm that the child is in good health for sports activities. In case of doubt, a doctor must be consulted, and a corresponding medical certificate must be provided. If the child is unable to train for at least four weeks due to an accident, illness, or other valid reasons, the contract duration may be extended accordingly. The inability to train must be proven with a medical certificate or an official written confirmation from the relevant authority.

Vera bjj kids reserves the right to make changes to the class schedule with timely prior notice. The training agreement becomes valid upon payment of the agreed price or the first agreed installment."

The training agreement becomes valid upon payment of the agreed price or the first agreed installment.

Lessons & Equipment

Members must adhere to the valid class regulations.

Members are responsible for bringing their own required training equipment. The official Vera BJJ Gi (kimono) is mandatory for all Gi classes. Kimonos from other academies or external brands are not permitted during regular training sessions.

The school does not offer buy-backs or refunds for unused training equipment, including kimonos.

In special or exceptional circumstances, please speak directly with our responsible Head Coach, Maksym, who will be happy to discuss the situation with you.

Liability

The school is not liable for:

- Accidents or illnesses of the member, even as a result of the training session.
- Loss or damage of personal belongings.

Holidays and Membership Suspension

Membership fees remain payable during holiday periods.

Our classes are reduced during the official School holidays periods in the Canton of Zurich (no classes during Christmas holidays, reduced classes during summer holidays).

If a member is absent for more than four weeks, they may request a temporary suspension of their contract by notifying the school management in writing. Retroactive suspensions are not possible. Valid reasons for suspension include medical issues (doctor's certificate required), or extended vacations(for a period of 30 consecutive days from start the contracts period, valid only once per year)

Any other suspension requests must be submitted in writing at least four weeks before the absence. The school management will inform the member no later than two weeks before the requested period whether the request has been approved.

Contract Period and Payments

Payment will be made unequal monthly installments, due on the [e.g., 1st] of each consecutive month, (basic example: if the 3 installment payments starts in June, they must be made monthly and consecutively- That is, in June, July and August and not on a quarterly basis).

This membership agreement is valid from the moment of signing for the corresponding payment period. If not canceled in writing 30 days before the end of the payment period, it will automatically renew for another payment period. Termination becomes effective once all financial obligations to Vera bjj kids have been fulfilled. A fee of CHF 20 will be charged for the first reminder. After that, the invoice will be forwarded to the responsible collection agency. If the member can no longer participate, a fee for two months of the subscription will be charged, and the remaining amount will be refunded to the student.

By signing this agreement, I acknowledge and agree that Vera BJJ may take and publish general photos and videos taken during classes, training sessions, events, camps, and other activities for use on Vera BJJ's social media channels and other promotional platforms.

These may include group photos or general activity shots where children may appear as part of the group.

For photos or videos specifically focused on an individual child, we will always ask the parent or legal guardian for permission beforehand.

If you have any questions, concerns, or would prefer that your child not appear in general photos or videos, please contact us directly. We are happy to discuss this with you and respect your wishes.
